

Annual String Workshop with special guest teacher

Tracy Helming Friday, March 5 • Saturday, March 6 • Sunday, March 7, 2010
University of Alaska Southeast • Egan Classroom Wing

An intensive three-day workshop for violin and viola students and their parents that includes private and group lessons, a parent's forum and a recital.

EVENT DESCRIPTIONS

Private Lessons

Students may choose a 30, 45 or 60 minute private lesson, depending on their attention span and level of experience. Each student should arrive with a prepared piece.

Group Lessons

Group classes are interactive, fun and allow students to learn with their peers in a relaxed and social atmosphere. Students review and polish repertoire, develop ensemble skills, and build motivation. Friday's lessons are at the Bill Ray Center and Saturday's and Sunday's lessons are at University of Alaska Southeast.

Students will play the following pieces:

Twinklers: For the youngest beginners, Twinklers will have a 30-minute session with Tracy on Friday, followed by a group lesson with Book 1 students Sunday afternoon.

Book 1: All pieces. This is a two-session lesson, with class Friday and Sunday afternoons.

Book 2: All pieces. This is a two-session lesson, with class Friday and Sunday afternoons.

Concerto Master Classes

Master Classes are semi-private lessons in which students play for their peers while experiencing a one-on-one lesson with Ms. Helming. Class size is limited to 3 or 4, and each student receives at least 15 minutes of individual instruction. Concerto master classes are offered for the Seitz Concerto No. 2, the Vivaldi Concerto in A minor and the Bach Double Concerto.

Fiddle Class

Fiddling 1 and Fiddling 2 are offered for students with or without Suzuki experience. Fiddling 1 will assume no prior fiddling experience. Fiddling 2 is for students with prior fiddling experience

Parent Forum/ Dress Rehearsal

Ms. Helming will lead a parent discussion on topics of interest while students rehearse for the recital. This is an opportunity to share ideas about how to motivate your child, violin and bow maintenance, summer institutes, and other items of parent interest.

Final Concert

All workshop participants may participate in the Final Concert, which will include a Suzuki playthrough. Some students will perform solo pieces, at the discretion of Tracy Helming and their local instructors. Black and white concert attire is appreciated.

Reception

A reception will immediately follow the recital. Juneau Jazz & Classics will provide beverages. Please bring a treat to share.

Tracy Helming has a Master's Degree in violin performance from the Yale School of Music and received her Suzuki training at the Hartt School of Music. In addition to a busy performing schedule, Tracy teaches at the Oregon Suzuki Institute, the Anchorage Suzuki Institute, and other institutes throughout the Pacific Northwest. She recently returned from a trip to Egypt where she studied Arabic violin, and has a busy practice teaching and performing Middle Eastern dance in Washington.
